PRES. WILSON

BECOMES TIRED OF WAY MEXICANS DELAY AND DODGE.

DISPLAYS PATIENCE

It Is Now Up to the English Government to Say What Reparation She Wishes.

Washington, March 2.-President Wilson Monday revealed to those who discussed Mexican affairs with him that he fully realized the gravity of the situation resulting from the kill-ing of William S. Benton, a British subject; the reported murder of Gus-tav Bauch and Clemente Vergara, American citizens, and Gen. Carran-za's denial of the right of the United States to look after the interests of foreigners generally in Mexico.

The president spoke deploringly of power of a country like the United States as being sufficient warrant for a calm and patient course while compliance with the American demand plance with the American demands was being sought. Callers got the impression from the president that he was determined to try every peaceful means at his disposal to solve the Mexican problem, but that he realized certain eventualities might mean a drastic course. He spoke with a firmness that showed his determination not to be stored for tion not to be stamped into action by radical speeches in congress, but with hint that when the necessity arose the American government could be expected to move decisively and effec-

Practically All Weather Records Broken for the Month of March.

New York, March 2.-With temperawhich railroad and telegraph com-panies declare has been the most destructive in this section of the country since the memorable blizzard of 1888. From Cleveland on the west and Baltimore on the south to the Canadian and Nova Scotian borders the storm has been general. In and near New York ten persons perished yesterday and today and several fatalities were reported elsewhere.

Coldest March Day in Years. Columbia, S. C., March 2.—Columbians this morning shivered in the coldest weather for March 2 in the twenty-seven years' history of the lo-cal weather bureau, and the coldest March day in thirteen years. At 8 o'clock the mercury had fallen to 21 degrees. The cold wave was accompanied by high winds.

Wrecks Baptist Auditorium. Asheville, N. C., March 2.—The big auditorium of the Southern Baptist assembly near here was blown to pieces by the high winds last night and today. The building was a huge, open structure, and the wind, catching under the roof, shook it to pieces. In falling the roof pushed in the front of the new church, recently finished.
